ALLIES AGAIN CLAIM SUCCESS

Movng Steadily Toward Belgian Frontier at Present.

EXTEND BATTLE LINE.

French Continue to Force Germans Back With Comparatively Small Loses Reported.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The allied armies are again on the offensive. It is officially admitted that they are slowly regaining every foot of the territory sacrificed to the Germans in the early days of this week. The Germans are being thrown back between the Somme and the Oise and also have been driven north of Arras.

But it is the cavalry engagements that overshadow all else. All along the northern frontier of France the mounted troops of both armies are in batle. The official statement laconically says that the fighting "extends nearly to the North Sea." Behind that announcement is contained the declaration that the Germans are still doing their utmost to cut the British lines of communication. And to prevent this, the crack French cavalry, assisted by the Indian horsemen of King George, as fighting desperately and, according to all reports, successfully.

There was a more confident ring in today's statement than at any time this week. It is declared here that the British and French re-enforcements are already on the firing line and that it is due to their efforts that the Germans are being driven back.

The Germans continue to endeavor to resume the offensive in the Woevre region, but so far they have failed. In every attempt they have been repulsed with heavy losses It is now accepted that there will be a long delay before a decisive result can be secured in the north.

Paris Oct. 8—Operations by cavalry in force were reported from the north last night, and in every instance it was stated that success again is with the allies.

They are moving their lines steadily toward the Belgian frontier and are reported to have frustrated an attempt to cut their main line of communication.

The line of battle has been extended fully 100 miles from the Aisne to the Belgian frontier and that line is now held by the armies of Von Boehm, Von Kluck, and Von Buelow while reports are current here that Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria is in command of the reserve forces that have been assembled in Belgium, another army having relieved his, which previously, was operating in the neighborhood of Verdun. This, however, is not yet definitely known here.

On the southern front, extending some 50 miles from Compiegne to Pont-a-Mousson it is stated here that the only signs of activity is in the Woevre region, where the French advance is steadily maintained, but the daily gains are very small. The French along the Meuse continued to force the Germans back, military headquarters say, with comparatively light losses.

But it is in the department of Pas-de-Calais and the department of the Nord that the interest is most intense. Here it is that the Germans are delivering their hardest blows.

That outflanking movement of the Germans did not succeed was due entirely to the work of the British air scouts.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Submarine E-9, of the British navy, made another raid into German waters off the mouth of the River Ems and succeeded in sinking a German torpedoboat destroyer. A dispatch from Harwich, England, says that a rumor is in circulation there of the sinking of a German cruiser in addition to the German torpedoboat destroyer.

In a desperate pistol duel in front of a saloon at Randolph and Dearborn streets in Chicago, yesterday afternoon five persohs, including two city detectives and Barney Bertsche, the head of the once notorious "Clairvoyant trust," were shot. The cause of the shooting is believed to be a feud of long standing between Bertsche and the police.

Within a circle a mile in diameter in Coddington Cove at Newport, R. I., hundreds of dead fish floated yesterday afternoon, killed by the detonation of more than 200 pounds of a new explosive which had filled the war head of a torpedo fired into a steel torpedo net from the torpedoboat Morris. The torpedo went easily through the net. When the torpedo exploded, about 15 feet below the surface, a column of water shot 90 feet high.

The Chinese government has been informed that a party of 30 Japanese occupied on Wednesday the stations of the Shantung Railway at Tainan, the western terminus of the German-owned road. The foreign office immediately upon receipt of this intelligence delivered another protest to the Japanese legation, demanding the withdrawal of the Japanese troops and asking for a reply. However, despite the ultimatum like character, of the Chinese note, it admitted that China does not intend to fght.

A fishing rod gripped tightly in his hand, a line running to the water with a cork bobbing to and fro, George S. Dougherty, for twenty-seven years connected with the Herdic Cab Company, was found dead last night sitting on a bench at the river's edge in Potomac Park. He was 65 years old.

The Secretary of State has been officially informed that the occupation by the Japanese naval forces of the German Pacific Islands is only temporary and solely for military purposes. The assurance came yesterday from the Japanese foreign office through Ambassador Guthdie, and also from the Japanese embassy in Washington.

The Paris Messaggero publishes a dispatch from Ancona, in Italy, in the Adriatic, which declares that four Austrian torpedoboats and two Austrian torpedoboat destroyers have been lost off the coast of Dalmatia as a result of coming in contact with mines. The Ancona dispatch adds that a majority of the members of the crews of these six vessels lost their lives.

Mrs. Cora Quackenbush, thirty-six years old, wife of Augustus Quackenbush, of Washington, was drowned in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal at Sipes' Lock, three miles above Great Falls, shortly after 12 o'clock Monday night. Mrs. Quackenbush had been visiting at the home of Levi Hill, near Cropley. She attended a dance at Sipes' Lock, and when the festivity broke up she and Albert Brooks of Cropley, started to cross the canal by means of a swinging bridge. It is supposed that the bridge was not fastened at one side, for just as the couple stepped upon it it gave away and both were plunged into the lock. Brooks swam to safety, but Mrs. Quackenbush, who was unable to swim, sank.

Mohammedans are plundering and killing Christians in Albania, according to a dispatch from Janina. It states that many villages about Berat have been burned and that refugees declare at least 200 men, women and children have been massacred.

DEATH NOTICE

DIED at the residence, 912 Cameron street, Wednesday, October 7th, 1914. Miss Augusta Fleet Parrott. Funeral services from her late residence, Friday October 9th. at 10:30 o'clock.

FORTIFICATIONS RING BROKEN

Many Belgian Villages are Burned by Advancing German Army.

ANTWERP IS INTACT.

Few Shells Explode in City—Will, However, be Totally Destroyed—Pathetic Scenes.

Amsterdam, Holland, Oct. 8—With her outer ring of fortifications broken and with every village within miles of the city in flames, Antwerp continues to essay the fiercest resistance to the besieging Germans.

The city itself, according to trustworthy advices, was still intact at noon. The Germans are bombarding both the city and the fortifications, but seemingly the shells dropping in the city proper were "overshots" Few of them exploded, but it is plain that the besieging forces have the range of the city and that they are prepared to wipe it from the face of the earth whenever they decide to turn their guns in earnest on the city itself.

Lierre and Contich were practically destroyed yesterday.

The shells from the German batteries set fire to the towns and block after block of houses, with no one to attempt to check the progress of the flames.

Forts Waelhem and Wavre are now nothing but holes in the earth. They have been simply smothered out of existence by the terrible shell fire of the German big guns. Their garrisons perished at their posts of duty.

The German artillery is also reported to have proven terribly destructive near Vosberg.

The villages of Hove, Horssel, and Vieux-dieu have all suffered heavily, They are deserted, and many of their houses, especially the poorly constructed homes of the workers, have been leveled to dust.

The scenes among the refugees of these villages and towns who flocked into Antwerp are indescribably pathetic,

Families have been separated. Some have fled into Holland, for safety. Others line the roads leading to the border.

Weeping women are frantically seeking their missing children. Babies of tender years are toddling along the streets, and the country roads, weeping hysterically.

Families are utterly without information of the whereabouts of fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters. Thousands are hungry.

There has been no attempt as yet to systematize the exodus of the noncombatants. Many are stolidly remaining in their homes hopeless, despairing prepared to accept death as inevitable.

The Dutch people along the border are sympathetic. But already their resources have been taxed to the utmost. They are doing their utmost to relieve distress and to feed the hungry.

They have established a number of concentration camps, where these latest refugees will be housed for the present. But outside aid must come, and come quickly, unless thousands of innocent women and children are to die of starvation.

A METROPOLITAN AFFAIR.

Fairylike Scene Presented at Opening of D. Bendheim & Sons.

One passing along King street last night shortly afer eight o'clock, was mentally transported to New York by viewing the opening of D. Bendheim & Sons. The beautiful building which itself is one of the most attractive structures used for commercial purposes in Virginia, was brilliantly lighted and was crowded with hundreds of handsomely dressed women who had been drawn from their homes by one of the big events in the fashionable world.

The decorations and display of merchandise was in thorough keeping with the spirit of the occasion. An orchestra was present and played during the evening.

Bendheims have had many openings in their long career in Alexandria, but last night was by far the most successful of them all.

SHOOTING AT BRICK YARD.

Thomas Burrage Wounded by William Johnson This Afternoon.

A row occurred about three o'clock this afternoon between two colored employes (Thomas Burrage and William Johnson), at the Bromelaw Brick Works, on the north bank of Hunting Creek, during which Burrage was shot in the leg and arm by Johnson. Burrage was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

A telephone message was sent to the station house announcing the occurrence. Mayor Fisher was at the station house at the time and taking Officer Ferguson in his automobile started for the brick yard for the purpose of arresting Johnson who was said to be still on the premises.

Mayor Fisher and Officer Ferguson returned about four o'clock without Johnson, the latter having left the brick yard shortly after the shooting.

SCHMELZ IN EXTREMIS.

Tidewater Banker Not Expected to Live Through the Day.

Newport News, Va. Oct. 8—Physicians held out no hope at a late hour last night for the recovery of Henry Lane Schmelz, banker, philanthrophist and educator of Hampton. He is suffering with tuberculosis, diabetes, and a complication of other diseases. Death is expected at any time.

Mr. Schmelz, who is sixty-one years of age, has been confined to his home for the past few months.

THEIR PASTOR IS TOO TALL.

Winchester Methodists Have to Remodel Parsonage.

Winchester, Va. Oct. 8—The congregation of the John Mann Methodist Episcopal Memorial Church of Winchester has found it necessary to make some improvements to the parsonage, principally the heightening of ceilings on the second story because the pastor, the Rev. A. P. Shaw, is too tall to enter the sleeping rooms without stooping. Mr. Shaw suits the congregation, with the exception of his height, and rather than dispense with his service the trustees have commissioned an architect to alter the parsonage so that the pastor will not be required to stoop whenever he desires to go into a room on the second floor of the house. The Rev. Shaw is perhaps the tallest person in this section of the State, being more than seven feet.

BATTLE RAGES ON THE VISTULA

Russians Succeed in Forcing Austrians to Fight in Open Country.

NEW CONFLICT IS ON

Bombardment of Przemysl by Russians Continues—Many Houses Destroyed by Exploding Shells.

Petrograd, Oct. 8.—An official explanation of the withdrawal of the Russians in Galicia from the line of the River Donajec was issued today. It was stated that the combined Austro-Germany army occupied a very strongly entrenched line, extending from Kieloe, in Russian Poland, south through Sorgucia, Tarnow, to Neu Sandee.

The Russian advance guard felt out this position and discovered that it was so strong that to take it by frontal assaults would result in frightful losses to the attacking army. In consequence the Russians withdrew in order to force the Austrians to accept battle in the open country.

The ruse was successful, it is stated, and a new battle is now in progress along lines far more favorable to the Russians.

The fighting is declared to be particularly severe in the vicinity of the Vistula river, just to the north of Sorgucia.

Meanwhile, the bombardment of Przemysl by the heavy Russian artillery continues. Great breaches are apparent in the walls of the fortifications, while the Russian airmen who have flown over the city report that many houses have been destroyed by fire and that they saw numerous dead lying unburied in the streets.

The Austrian garrison attempted a sortie on Tuesday night, but the aerial scouts had reported that troops were being massed for that purpose and the Russians were in readiness. They annihilated the front columns by a fire from machine guns that had been masked on both sides of the southern gate, through which the garrison tried to emerge.

The fighting continues with the utmost violence on the east Prussian frontier, where the Germans occupy strong positions in the Tchernegarja region. They have uncovered here, it is stated, a series of hidden redoubts, which are a part of their first defense line, and in which are mounted heavy guns.

The entire battle line is of great strategic advantage because of the marshy nature of the land and the many small lakes and streams that abound there. In consequence the Russian advance is of necessity very slow. The entire Russian lines are again being heavily re-enforced and additional regiments of artillery are being rushed to the front.

GERMANS NEAR COAST.

Advance-Post Fighting Reported In Belgium Twenty Miles South of Ostend.

London, Oct. 8—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Ostend says.

"Numerous skirmishes occurred this morning between the advance posts in the environs of Ypres (in Belgium 20 miles south of Ostend) and in the southern part of West Flanders.

"The Germans threw themselves on the forts and intrenchments."

A dispatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says:

"A message received here from Ghent says fighting of a violent character has taken place between Audenarde (15 miles southwest of Ghent) and Leupeghem (a small town about a mile south of Audenarde).

"After an hour's engagement the Belgians received reinforcements and threw back the Germans with heavy losses."

An Ostend dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that a German detachment numbering about 1,000 men, with artillery, arrived Tuesday evening at Courtrai where it took up quarters.

The men seemed very tired. One of them said he had been for 48 hours without food. The detachment came from Metz by way of Liege.

Scramble for Tickets to Witness Game at Philadelphia.

McINNIS IS INJURED

Weather Bureau Forecasts Threatening Weather and Probably Showers During the Day.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—In the midst of scrambles for tickets and threats of the weather man, Philadelphia came up with a jerk toda y to the realization that Connie Mack had put something over.

"Stuffy" McInnis, star first baseman of the Athletics, is injured. He has not played a game since September 27th and is nursing a bruised right hand which was hit by a pitched ball.

When Old Fox Mack chose to let it leak out that "Stuffy's" absence from recent games was due to something more than a mere desire to give him a rest, he immediately declared his first sacker would start in the first game of the big tussle with the Braves tomorrow.

Just the same frantic efforts are being made to groom Jimmy Walsh into form as a substitute for McInnis. Walsh has "outfielder" written all over him, however, and it is believed today that, should it finally develop that McInnis will be unable to take his regular station, the veteran Harry Davis may be called upon to step into the breach.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Gloom for baseball fans was the keynote of a special world's series weather forecast today by the Weather Bureau. Showers may mar or possibly prevent the opening game at Philadelphia tomorrow. Professor Frankenfield, forecaster, said today.

"Unsettled weather and probably showers," was the Philadelphia prospect.

"Thunderstorms are general," said Prof. Frankenfield. "It looks pretty gloomy for the big game tomorrow. Showers are likely. Just what time—morning or afternoon, or night—we can't surely predict. But signs of rain are plentiful."

Frankenfield said there was no general storm in prospect, but generally showery and unsettled weather may be expected. He said it is too far ahead to predict weather conditions for Boston next week.

WOMEN IN LINE ALL NIGHT.

Glad to Endure Hardship to Secure World's Series Tickets.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Two young women, both of this city, were rewarded for a night's loss of sleep yesterday when they secured two of the most precious bits of pasteboard in the United States—two tickets for the world's baseball series scheduled to begin here on Friday.

Men and boys near the front of the line who were willing to part with their places asked $5. Tailend places could be had for 25 cents.

Sales of world's series tickets were made over long-distance telephone wires. Orders for boxes came from Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago, New York, Baltimore, and Nashville, Tenn.

George M. Cohan, playwright, and Abraham Erlanger, theatrical promoter, were the first to telephone orders to local hotels for tickets, where they were also on sale. Cohan agreed to pay $210 for 21 seats. Charles Dillingham, another New York theatrical man, duplicated Cohan's order.

Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, celebrating here, paid $6 and $7 for $3 seats.

The regular $10 seats in the front row of the grandstand are selling for $15. Benthysen said he disposed of a $25 box seat for $50.

DENOUNCES SIMIAN ANCESTRY

Citizens of North Carolina To Investigate School Books.

New Bern, N. C. Oct. 8—Taking the stand that any such teachings are in direct contradiction to the principles and truths set forth in the Bible a number of the members of the various churches of New Bern are denouncing several of the physical geographies now in use in the south which show that man is a higher order of animal and that in ages past their forefathers have hopped about among the branches of the trees. The view taken by the church people is that God made man in His form and then breathed life into his nostrils and that these teachings should be adhered to instead of the theory of Darwin. The subject has come up for considerable discussion here since the Presbyterians of Virginia denounced the use of a physical geography in that State which taught the theory of evolution.

Not only does this state of affairs exist in New Bern, but it is also understood that the citizens of Pamlico and Carteret counties have also become interested in the subject and are making an investigation to discover whether or not such a book is used in the public schools of those counties. If such is found to be the case there is not the least doubt but that it will be discarded and another put in use in its place.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Body of Baltimore Saloonkeeper Found in a Pond.

Baltimore, Oct. 8—His trousers ripped, the pockets turned inside out and his clothing torn and dirty the body of Joseph Kaluska a saloonkeeper at 403 West Pratt street was found floating in the pond opposite the Mount Winans Police Station yesterday morning. In the evening a jury of inquest failed to find the cause of death and suggested that a further investigation be made.

Kaluska was the husband of Magdalen Kaluska, who gained notoriety last spring when acid was thrown into her eyes by Kate Lazenko, of East Lombard street, who is now serving a term in jail for the offense. At her trial the woman declarer she meant the acid for Kaluska, but his wife fell the victim when she answered her rap at the door.

When last seen alive Kaluska was known to have had a large sum of money, possibly $300 in his pockets. The police are working on the theory that he was robbed and then thrown into the ice pond. Anton Pater, also a saloonkeeper testified at the inquest last night he had seen Kaluska at the Laurel track and that Kaluska told him he feit badly. That was last Saturday afternoon. Pater is the last man known to have seen him alive.

COST OF CANDY TO SOAR

Atlantic City, Oct., 8—That lovers of sweets will be compelled to pay higher prices as a result of the European war was the statement issued yesterday by the National Association of Retail Confectioners, in annual convention. The proposed increase in prices is justified by the advance in sugar, but more particularly by the jump in the coast of imported nuts and chocolates. The longer the war continues the higher will go the prices, state the dealers.

CANADA CAN SEND 500,000

Could Finish Germany Alone, Minister of Military Boasts.

New York, Oct 8—Canada is willing and able to furnish 500,000 picked men to fight against Germany, if the British Government needs them, according to Col. Sam Hughes, the Canadian Minister of Military, who sailed for England yesterday on the steamer Cedric.

Colonel Hughes follows in the wake of the first Canadian contingent of about 33,000 men who left Valcartier, Quebec, for England about two weeks ago. He would not discuss the object of his visit other than to say that he would have a conference with the British War office and return to Canada in a few weeks. He said that it was about time to hear of this contingent being in action.

"They are all crack shots," he continued "and trained to the minute. When we supplement their numbers with the additional volunteers who are now in camp at Valcartier we shall have about 30,000 men at the front and good men, too—the best in the world."

"How many soldiers will Canada send to the front?" he was asked.

"That," he replied, "depends upon what the British Government wishes of us. We could send enough men to add the finishing touches to Germany without assistance either from England or France; or, to set a definite figure we can supply the Government with 500,000 picked men. This number will not be required of us, however, nor anything like this number. But they are available. Why, we have been turning men away from the recruiting offices.

"Besides those 33,000 we have sent 1,000 men to Bermuda to relieve the garrison there, and we have 8,000 trained men on guard duty."

Ottawa, Oct. 8—Though no official announcement as to Colonel Hughes' plans after reaching England has been made, it is believed that he will go to the front with the Canadian troops. J. D. Hazen will be acting Minister of Military during Colonel Hughes' absence.

GOOD CORN CROP.

Improvement Also Noted In Tobacco By Government Experts

Washington, Oct., 8—Greater corn crop prospects by 78,000,000 bushels and great improvement in tobacco increasing the prospects of that crop over the forecast in September by 92,000,000 pounds, were the features of the Department of Agriculture's October crop report announced yesterday.

An increase of 11,000,000 bushels in the potato crop, 21,000,000 bushels in the oats crop and 10,000,000 bushels in the apple crop also were forecasted.

Spring wheat showed a slight decrease, being 4,000,000 bushels under the September forecast, yet the combined crop of winter wheat and spring wheat makes this year's harvest of that grain a record one.

MRS. CARMAN'S OWN STORY

She Will Tell at Trial What Was Kept From Grand Jury.

New York Oct., 8—Mrs. Florence C. Carman's own story of what she knows of the murder of Mrs. Louise D. Bailey in Dr. Carman's office in Freeport L. I., June 30, which she was not permitted to tell before the Nassau county grand jury which indicted her for the crime, is to be told on the stand during the trial which begins next week.

District Attorney Smith says he feels sure of convicting Mrs. Carman. Frank Farrell will testify that he saw a woman shoot through the window of the doctor's office.

Gov. Blease Says Democrats Threatened with Defeat.

Columbia, S. C. Oct. 8—In a sensational message to the legislature, which convened Tuesday in extraordinary session, Governor Cole Blease declared that the Democratic party is threatened with defeat in the November elections. The legislature is in session to take action looking to devising means of relief from the financial depression caused by the cotton market situation.

COST OF INVASION.

Germans Lose 70,000 Men and Abandon Every Thing in Russia.

London, Oct. 8—The defeat of the German army which invaded Russia from East Prussia appears from Russian accounts to have been even more decisive than previously stated. According to the Russian ambassador at Rome, the Germans were routed completely with a loss of 70,000 men and have been forced to abandon everything.

The Russians are now moving forward with the object of again invading East Prussia. This victory, if it is as complete as reported is of the greatest importance to the Russians as it will prevent the Germans from undertaking from land and sea operations which would have compelled Russia to turn at least a part of its attention in this direction.

General Rennenkampf apparently drove a wedge between the two German forces which were advancing upon Drusgeniki and Ossowetz and brought about the battle of Augustowo which resulted in a Russian victory. If the Germans have not retired from the left bank of the Niemen river at Drusgeniki, their defeat at Augustowo must compel them to do so. The moral effect of another invasion of East Prussia will also be of importance.

BOOM IN GLASS.

Large Orders for Plate and Window Product Flow in.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 8—Because of the war in Europe, many large orders for window and plate glass have come to the manufacturers of the United States, according to Captain C. W. Brown, of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, who also said that his co., had received a large number of orders for window and plate glass since the European war shut off importations; also that his company has been asked by European manufacturers to assume contracts they had taken before war developed.

"We could not assume these contracts at the prices at which they were taken," said Captain Brown, "because they were at prices 3 to 5 cents per square foot lower than we could manufacture it for. The result has been that in all cases where we have undertaken to supply the glass on foreign contracts we have taken them at a price that is remunerative and that considers American wage rates. During the past two reductions in the tariff laws, plate and other qualities of glass have suffered reductions so severe that we cannot compete on equal terms for foreign trade, measuring wage and freight rates with those of Belgium, Germany and England."

PHYSICIAN INDICTED.

Dr. William H. Moss Charged in United States Court With Misusing Mail.

Richmond, Oct. 8—Dr. William H. Moss, of Norfolk, was indicted by the grand jury in the United States District Court yesterday on charge of fraudulently using the mails.

The physician is alleged to have received fees from various patients for furnishing medicines, held by the indictment to be worthless, for maladies which had never been diagnosed. It is charged that Dr. Moss furnished treatment without having seen the patient to observe symptoms, and therefore was not in a position to render skilful services.

The accused is said to have advertised in newspapers of his ability to cure chronic ailments, and in response various people sent him money to prescribe for them. The indictment includes four counts.

CARLIN SHOULD RECEIVE UNANIMOUS VOTE.

Loyal to his convictions, of established reputation as a lawmaker, of approved courage in his thinking and acting and faithful always to his people, Charles C. Carlin, should be returned to Congress at the election next month by the unanimous vote of the Eighth District of Virginia.

Because he is a thorough-going Democrat in complete harmony with the President and his party.

Because he has failed in no instance to represent the best interests of his constituents in the broadest spirit, yielding nothing of settled conviction to passing expediency.

Because he is the fittest man for the place—fittest by proved qualifications, by political faith, by substantial achievement, by "knowing how", and by long and efficient service.

Mr. Carlin has been growing steadily in favor with the Government at Washington. He has represented his District seven years and no man can say that he has ever failed to perform a promise or sought to escape a responsibility. A lawyer of conspicuous ability and sound judgment he has been much consulted on many intricate legislative questions and fills an important place on the Committee on the Judiciary of which he is the ranking member. In conferences on matters of dispute between the two Houses he has taken an active part, and among all the members of the House there is none more highly respected and whose personal influence counts for more in the conduct of the public business. Search the record and it will be found that his vote has been cast invariably on the side of sanity in legislation.

Mr. Carlin has been renominated by the Democrats of his District for another term. He deserves it because of his faithful service. He was never so well fitted for the place as he is now. Experience counts for a great deal in Congress. The most influential members are the members who have seen the longest service. The business of legislation cannot be learned in a day. It is effective only when it is intelligent. The member without experience is also without influence. To be worth very much to his constituents, a Representative in Congress must know what ought to be done and how to do it, and in all essential qualities Mr. Carlin is better prepared than ever to take care of the interests of the people of his District and State. His wisdom in counsel, his integrity of character, his familiarity with legislation, his standing in his party, the confidence of the Administration in his judgment, the respect in which he is held by the House of Representatives, his diligence in business and his unceasing care for the public interests commend him to the support of all the people of his District.

Mr. Carlin will be opposed at the election in November by a standpat Republican, who with a Democratic President in the White House and a Democratic majority in Congress, whatever his qualifications, would be of as much service to his State and District as the fifth wheel of an old-fashioned coach. There can be only one intelligent choice in the Eighth District, and we would urge every man in the District to do his duty by going to the polls and voting for Carlin.

IS HISTORY TO REPEAT ITSELF?

In museums throughout the civilized world armless and often headless marble effigies of gods, goddesses and heroes of other days are on exhibition, and people of antiquarian tastes stand and study such relics of other days with interest. The beholder often wonders why such specimens of Ionian and other chisels were irreparably damaged. The Venus of Milo is minus arms, and the recumbent image of "Ariadne Deserted" has been decapitated. The Parthenon and Theseum at Athens among the greatest specimens of ancient architecture, have been subjected to base usage during the past two thousand years, while the ruins of great cities of antiquity show by their debris the genius of a mighty people.

As is often referred to, Macaulay speculated on future ages, and suggested that a time might come when the great city of London, capital of the Christian world, would be in ruins, and that a New Zealander might be found seated on a broken span of London Bridge surveying the ruins of St. Paul's Cathedral.

While, we as English-speaking people, prefer to believe the prophecy of the great historian will come to naught, in the terrible devastation now in progress in Europe there is no telling what may be presented to tourists of coming years.

Some of the oldest and most interesting cities in Europe have already been bombarded, and structures which have pleased the eyes of travelers for hundreds of years are practically ruined. Grand cathedrals, containing priceless works of art, in the shape of paintings and statuary, have been damaged and in many cases ruined. Statues of saints which have stood in these edifices silently for centuries watching the rise and fall of nations, the changes in the map of the world and the joys and sorrows incident to this mundane existence, are now posing without arms and in many cases without heads. In years to come they will probably be found in museums with the "remains" of Jove, Venus, Diana, Socrates, Cæsar, Brutus and others.

Apart from the work of the iconoclasts, who respect nothing in war, the carnage is frightful to contemplate. Over one million persons have been killed so far, although the war is but about two months old.

The city of Antwerp is about to have the experience of Brussels, Louvain, Rheims and other places which have been the scenes of carnage. In the Cathedral at Antwerp one of the most realistic paintings in the world is shown—the scourging of the Son of God. It is said that when the veil is thrown aside in order that visitors may view the picture, that they generally step back in horror, and it takes several minutes for them to become pacified in order to closely study this great work of art. German shells will not respect this picture which has sent thrills through all those eyes have fallen upon it. The great struggle between Mars and the Prince of Peace is as fierce as ever.

ANTI-TRUST BILL DISPOSED OF.

The adoption by the Senate on Monday of the conference report on the Clayton anti-trust bill by the decisive vote of 35 to 26 virtually disposes of that measure and leaves only two important bills to be considered during the remainder of the week. The anti-trust conference report was agreed to after voting down a dilatory motion by Senator Reed, of Missouri, to recommit the bill for further conference. Only three Democrats—Messrs. Lane, Martine and Reed—voted against the adoption of the conference report.

The effect of the measure as now practically completed is to forbid price discriminations, to limit interlocking directorates and to prohibit holding companies designed to destroy or substantially limit competition. The labor of a human being is defined as not a commodity or article of commerce, and hence the formation and maintenance of unions of farmers and laboring men is permissible under the law. Reforms in court procedure governing contempt cases and the issue of injunctions arbitrarily in labor disputes are embodied in the bill, which is very carefully drawn and will stand the court tests.

President Wilson has made denial of the current report that he would consent to a recess or temporary adjournment and would call an extra session in November, as reported by Washington correspondents. Instead he is of opinion that the really necessary legislation now pending can be disposed of and will be by October 15th, (Thursday of next week) and that Congress will then be able to adjourn until the regular session beginning December 7th.

The indications now are that the other important measures will be expedited, for representatives and senators are anxious to get home and look after interests in election.

The adjournment of Congress will be a relief not alone to the members but to business. It has been a long hard session, but the results achieved have been well worth the time and labor. After all, senators and representatives are expected to work when there is important work to be done, and under the extraordinary conditions existing much work of that character has arisen.

SCOTTISH RITE MASONS.

George Flemming Moore Sovereign Grand Commander.

Washington, Oct. 8.—George Flemming Moore, of Montgomery, Ala., was elected sovereign grand commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons for the Southern jurisdiction of the United State yesterday by the Supreme Council in session here. Mr. Moore was lieutenant grand commander and was elected to succeed the late sovereign grand commander, James D. Richardson.

Other officers chosen were: Lieutenant grand commander, Chas. E. Rosenbaum, Little Rock, Ark.; grand prior, Charles F. Buck, New Orleans, La.; grand chancellor, Ernest B. Hussey, Seattle, Wash., and grand master of State, Travanio W. Hugo McAlester, Okla.

GIRL CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Caught in Machinery in Her Father's Mill.

Dover, Del., Oct. 8.—Becoming wedged in the main driving shaft of the machinery in the third story of her father's mill, 13-year-old Mary Casson, daughter of Levin D. Casson, was killed yesterday afternoon at Garrison Mills, seven miles from Dover. The back and top of her head were crushed before the engine could be shut off. The clothing had to be cut before her body could be released.

The father and daughter were alone in the mill when the accident occurred. Realizing the perilous condition of his daughter, Mr. Casson went to stop the engine and collapsed upon his return to find his daughter dead.

ELOPERS WIN RACE.

Delaware Couple, Followed by the Girl's Father, Weds in Elkton.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 8.—A night elopement terminated yesterday at Elkton, Md., in the marriage of Miss Ada M. Burge, aged 18 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burge, near Hare's Corner, Del., and George D. Ware, son of a farmer near Newark, Del.

On their all-night drive the elopers were followed closely by the father of the bride and Constable James Wright, of New Castle, Del. The ceremony was performed none too soon, for the irate parent and the constable arrived shortly after the knot was tied.

Despite her protests, the bride was separated from her husband and taken home. Ware, however, was told last night to go to the home of his father-in-law and his bride was restored to him.

ZEPPELINS TO RAID BRITAIN.

London Correspondent Says German Papers Indicate as Much.

London, Oct. 8.—In a dispatch from The Hague the correspondent of the Daily Express says German newspapers reaching there indicate that Count Zeppelin is now at Wilhelmshaven, on the North Sea, with his staff. Wilhelmshaven is the point from which the great air raid on the British Isles is expected to start.

One of these papers publishes an interview with the Count, in which he is quoted as saying he had not forgotten England and would prove it very soon.

It is also reported, the correspondent of the Express continues, that Count Zeppelin was summoned recently by Emperor William to Mainz. His Majesty said to the Count that he relied on him for a great work, and offered to make him commander-in-chief of the German air fleet. The Count smilingly refused, but said he would accept the title when he returned from England.

The Zeppelin staffs are working day and night at Wilhelmshaven and a second station is being established at Emden for other types of airships.

BLAMES WAR ON CHURCHES.

Dr. Bell Tells Disciples Lack of Unity Is Responsible.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8—A divided church is responsible for the war in Europe, declared Dr. Hill M. Bell of Des Moines, Iowa, president of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, which formally was opened here last night, with 11,000 churches in the denomination represented. Pleas for unity among Christian sects and nations and condemnation of the strife across the seas characterized the addresses.

WAR MERELY BEGUN.

Long and Terrific Struggle Prognosicated by Military Expert.

London, Oct. 8—British military experts declared here today that the human equation must soon enter strongly into the conflict between Germans and allies in France which began as the battle of the Aisne and has now developed into the campaign of seven rivers.

Allowing for the valuable discipline of the German troops and their strong positions, the English military men believe that exhaustion will tell in the end, and that the British and French troops, being fresher and better fed and under less strain than the Germans, will force a general retreat of the invaders.

Suffering from exposure, and some times from lack of food, under constant fire and subject to the nerve-breaking dread of continual attacks, the German soldiers, hardy as they have proved themselves to be, must be ready to break down. On the other hand, Field Marshal Sir John French declares that the morals and physical condition of the allies could not be better.

This is the sixty-fourth day of the war in Europe and the end is not yet in sight. In fact, to sum it all up, it seems that the warring nations, are just beginning to fight in earnest. In the western theater of hostilities the Germans so far have had the advantage in Belgium and have been more than holding their own in France; in the eastern theater the Russians have been successful against Austria, but the conflict between the Germans and Russians, has not been much better than a draw. in the southern theater the Servians have won some battles, but the situation there is not such as to give Servia the right to claim that she has won the war against Austria.

In Belgium the Germans are practically masters, and it is believed here that the surrender of Antwerp is only a matter of a short time. The German siege guns are evidently within range of the city proper.

Although the Russian general staff has been ceaseless in its claims of victories over the Germans and Austrians, and German strategy in this theater of war has been warmly criticised the view of impartial observers is that German strategy in the eastern theater of war is equal if not superior to Russian strategy. Man to man, the German soldiers seem to be better fighters than the Russians, although the Muscovites are in a position to put more men in the field than the Germans.

A telegram received in Rome from Berlin says: "The civilians of Lanaeken, Belgium, having attacked German troops, reprisals were necessary. Lanaeken was bombarded and its church destroyed. Along the road between Lanaeken and Tongres all the houses were burned."

HELD ON MURDER CHARGE.

Negro Wanted 13 Years By Virginia Authorities.

Baltimore, Oct 8—After a disappearance of 13 years, following his shooting and killing another negro in Virginia, Phuny Ivory Johnson, 31 years old, was arrested yesterday afternoon. Johnson had been in Baltimore less than 24 hours, coming from Camden, N. J., Tuesday night.

Johnson at first denied any knowledge of the killing, but within 15 minutes under grilling, he confessed. The shooting occurred Christmas eve, 1901, in Whitesone, Va., in the house of the slain man, Esau Ball. Johnson was then 18 years old. A quarrel started over a game of crap.

DUEL IN THE AIR.

German Aeroplane Brought Down by French.

Bordeaux, Oct. 8—Official dispatches received by the French war department give a graphic account of an aerial duel which was watched by thousands of soldiers of the French and German armies, October, 5, at Jonchery, in the region of Rheims.

A German aeroplane of the aviatic type ascended with two men and after circling over the French positions was returning to its own lines when Sergeant Frantz, one of the most expert of French aviators, accompanied by his mechanic, Quinault, gave chase. The French aeroplane took the German on the flank wounded the pilot and put a bullet through the gasoline tank.

A sheat of flame enveloped the aviatic and the machine dropped rapidly, landing close to the French lines. In the descent the wounded man continued to fire his pistol until prevented by the flames. Sergeant Frantz, came to earth in a series of magnificent spirals. Both Germans were found burned to death in the embers of their machine.

Frantz, was decorated with the Legion of Honor, and Quinault was awarded the military medal for their exploit.
